Manufacturing Sector Based Work Academy

Be part of our fantastic Manufacturing Academy designed in partnership with Dane Architectural and Barkell Air Handling Units

Dane Architectural, specialist in the design, manufacture and installation of facades and architectural metalwork for major construction projects.

Barkell Air Handling Units, is one of the UK's leading Air Handling Unit manufacturers. A career with Barkell is highly sought after.

During the academy, candidates will study qualifications to work in a manufacturing role along with practical training and employability skills. Candidates will also have an opportunity to visit Dane Arcitectual, Hamsterley and Barkell, Consett.

All candidates must attend Derwentside College every Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday 9.30am-3.30pm for 4 weeks
