

Job Description
Job Title	Lecturer in Health & Social Care
Main Purpose	To deliver teaching, learning and assessment that leads to excellent outcomes and supports learners to progress towards their aspirational career.
Line Manager	Curriculum Leader
Date Job Description Agreed	15 th May 2025

MAIN DUTIES
1.	Deliver teaching, learning and assessment that is relevant, inspiring, developmental and aspirational, and that leads to excellent progress, achievement, retention and destinations;
2.	Supervise learners through their journey with Derwentside College, providing support and challenge in all elements of their programme including, but not limited to:
	a. E	nrolment and induction
	b. Ir	nitial assessment and diagnostics
	c. P	lanning for learning, including schemes of work and lesson plans
	d. R	eviews of progress and targets
	e. P	roviding excellent, constructive feedback, including support for English and maths, and
	р	reparing reports for parents and carers
	f. P	reparation for examinations and tests
	g. P	astoral support and guidance
	h. A	ttendance and punctuality
	i. B	ehaviour and discipline
3.	identify t	he learning needs of individuals and groups attending programmes – including, where appropriate, action planning with individual learners and ensuring that each learner is taught according to their ability and potential;

- 4. devise and deploy an appropriate range and variety of teaching, learning and assessment methods to ensure learners make excellent progress;
- 5. ensure that learners establish positive attitudes to learning including enhancing their motivation and interest, increasing their capacity for independent learning and supporting their general development;
- 6. assess the progress of learners and support them with processes that stretch and challenge them to achieve more;
- 7. timely submission of all documentation that forms part of the Derwentside College learner journey;
- contribute to curriculum development that ensures the college's courses are current and informed by employers;
- participate in the college's procedures for improving teaching, learning and assessment and take part in relevant CPD that enhances practice;
- 10. contribute to the college's self-assessment and Quality Improvement Planning (QIP) process, including identifying strengths and areas for improvement via Programme Review and Evaluation (PRE).
- 11. Take an active part in supporting the recruitment of new learners, including promoting the college to the local community and stakeholders, and delivering school liaison activities.

General duties of all staff

- 1. safeguard and promote the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults;
- 2. ensure that safe working practices are adopted in compliance with relevant health and safety regulations;
- 3. demonstrate commitment to the principles of equality of opportunity and treatment, and comply with the requirements of relevant equal opportunities legislation;
- 4. assist in carrying out quality assurance procedures;
- attend and contribute to appropriate team meetings in order to enhance co-operative working relationships and standards of service delivery;

6. participate in performance management procedures and undertake staff training.

Undertaking such other duties commensurate with the grade of the post as may reasonably be required.

Person Specification
Job Title	Lecturer in Health & Social Care
Main Purpose	To deliver teaching, learning and assessment that leads to excellent outcomes and supports learners to progress towards their aspirational career.
Line Manager	Curriculum Leader
Date Job Description Agreed	15 th May 2025
Attributes	Essential	Desirable
Qualifications	 a recognised teaching qualification Qualifications relevant to, or in depth experience in, the sector of delivery at a level higher than subject(s) taught 	 Cert Ed Assessor Award, or equivalent IQA Award, or equivalent
Experience	 of good or outstanding teaching or training within a structured learning environment of the sector of delivery of working with systems designed to assure and to improve quality of the latest developments within the industry
Skills and abilities	 to prepare and deliver successful schemes of work that cover the teaching and learning standards in both practical and theory sessions to develop effective professional relationships with colleagues and learners to exhibit current expertise in the practical skills in the relevant area to communicate clearly, concisely and effectively to motivate and provide leadership to learners in such a way that their learning needs are met and their learning aims are achieved to create a culture of entrepreneurship and enterprise amongst learners to prioritise and organise your own workload effectively to motivate and inspire learners to work co-operatively as part of a team to keep accurate records and comply with organisational and administrative 	 to plan and implement industry based courses tasks effectively to deploy good communication, interpersonal, influencing and decision- making skills

Knowledge and understanding	 of effective planning and recording of learner progress of the current qualification structure of issues affecting Further Education of the values and behaviours suitable to work with children, young people and vulnerable adults of learner-centred methods of curriculum delivery of equal opportunities issues in teaching and learning 	 of the potential of Information and Learning Technology of the preparation of risk assessments of the Common Inspection Framework
Personal qualities	 a desire to support students to flourish. a commitment to equality and diversity, showing a desire to challenge inequality and promote diversity a distinct and credible personal presence in group settings a commitment to innovation and continuous improvement a readiness to work flexibly in a changing and challenging environment
Other requirements	 demonstrable relevant occupational competence enthusiasm, reliability, good judgement and patience 	 full UK driving licence and access to a vehicle for business use (or access to equivalent mobility)