Supporting Information

About the role:

In partnership with Education World, you will have the opportunity to develop your skills and progress into a variety of roles within the education sector.

Roles are varied, meaningful, and provide the opportunity to make a real difference to a child's daily experience in school. You'll work closely with the class teacher, SENCO and external professionals to provide tailored support that enables pupils with additional needs to engage with learning, develop confidence, and build essential life skills.

What we're looking for:

Do you want to make a real difference to the lives of children and young people with additional needs?

Working both independently and as part of a team, you will help children access personalised support that builds confidence, promotes progress, and nurtures essential life skills. We are looking for patient, empathetic individuals with a calm approach to behaviour and communication, able to work effectively in a team. Experience with complex needs, autism, or physical disabilities is helpful but not essential. Above all, we seek motivated people committed to supporting the welfare and development of young people.

What you'll get in return

- Competitive salary and benefits
- Professional development opportunities
- Supportive team environment
- Highly rated by educators on Trustpilot
- Referral bonus scheme for recommending a colleague
- Flexible working
