Supporting Information

About the role:

The role of a Learning Support Assistant is rewarding, varied, and no two days are ever the same. You will support pupils' educational, emotional, and social development, working with individuals or small groups to help them access learning, build confidence, and reach their full potential. You may assist with lesson preparation, provide tailored support for pupils with additional needs, and help create an inclusive, nurturing environment where every learner feels valued. This role is offered in partnership with MILK Education, giving you the chance to progress into a variety of exciting opportunities within the education sector.

What we're looking for:

Do you have a genuine passion for supporting young people to achieve their potential? We're looking for dedicated and compassionate individuals who can build positive relationships, work collaboratively with staff, and make a real difference in the classroom every day. Essential requirements include a good standard of literacy and numeracy, experience working with children or young people, whether voluntary or paid, strong communication skills, patience, and empathy.

What you'll get in return

- Flexible working opportunities leading to long-term employment.
- Variety of full-time and part-time contracts available.
- Competitive salary and benefits
- Supportive team environment and opportunities for further progression.
